Childhood and early life

- Ed Sheeran was born on 17 February 1991 in Halifax, West Yorkshire (U.K) and started showing interest in music from quite a young age.
- His father John was an art curator and a lecturer while his mother Imogen was a cultural publicist who later became a jewelry designer.
- From an early age, Ed started playing the guitar as well as singing in the local church. His father also used to take him to various musical concerts which inspired him to a great extent.
- Eric Clapton, Paul McCartney and Bob Dylan were some of the people who inspired him in his early years.
- He studied in Thomas Mills High School in Framlingham. He joined the National Youth Theatre when he was a teenager.
- From his teenage days he had started recording CDs and selling them. At the age of 14, he released 'The Orange Room' and also 'Spinning Man', both regarded as important works of his early years.

Career and major works

Youtube helped Ed's popularity to rise.

Ed Sheeran released two albums: one named after himself in 2006, and another one named 'Want Some?' in 2007.

Ed went to Los Angeles in the year 2010, where he was spotted by Jamie Foxx. His second single 'You need me, I don't need You', which was released in August 2011, also became quite popular.

On 3 January 2018, "Shape of You" was named the best selling single of 2017 in the UK.

On 10 May 2019, Sheeran released the single "I Don't Care", a duet with Justin Bieber.

On 25 June 2021, Sheeran released "Bad Habits", the song spent eleven consecutive weeks at the top of the UK Singles Chart and Irish Singles Chart, topped the charts in Australia, Canada and Germany among others, and peaked at number two on the Billboard Hot 100 in the US.
