

Production écrite

The document is a novel untitled in the castle of my skin written by George LAMMING, a famous Barbadian writer.

That was his first novel and it deals with the story of a poor village boy in Barbados.

This book was a success because the writer received the Somerset MAUGHAM Award for literature.

It's a striking piece of work according to the journalists.