Once upon a time there was a girl who lived with her wicked stepmother and her two unpleasant stepsisters. Her family made her do all the chores around the house : the laundry, sweeping and washing the floor, serving her sisters... She was named Cinderella, after the cinders she swept out of the fireplace.

The King needed to find a princess for his prince, so he organized a ball. The evil step-mother and step-sisters were invited, but Cinderella was not allowed to go. When they left, Cinderella's fairy godmother appeared and changed her dirty rags into a beautiful gown with glass slippers. Next the fairy godmother changed a pumpkin into a carriage and some mice into footmen. Before Cinderella left, the fairy godmother warned her to be home before midnight, because the spell would only last till then.

When Cinderella arrived at the ball the prince fell in love with her and asked her name. Just then the clock struck midnight, and Cinderella ran away. She was in such a hurry, she lost one of her glass slippers. It was the only clue the prince had to find her. He searched every home in the kingdom and had every single young girl try on the slipper to see if it fit. The evil step-sisters couldn't fit the slipper, but Cinderella did. The prince married her and they all lived happily ever after.
